GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS HINES TO SENTENCING AND POLICY ADVISORY COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Larry Young Hines of Raleigh to the North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission.

Hines is a community volunteer and homemaker. She is a member of the UNC at Chapel Hill School of Social Work Board of Advisors, the Franklin College of the University of Georgia Board of Advisors, and the Junior League of Raleigh. Hines received the Tate-Turner-Kuralt Champions Award from the UNC at Chapel Hill School of Social Work in 2004. She received her Bachelor's degree from the University of Georgia, a Master's degree in liberal studies from Duke University, and a Master's degree in special education from UNC at Chapel Hill.

The commission makes recommendations to the General Assembly for the modification of sentencing laws and policies. The board has 30 members, each serving a two-year term. The governor appoints three members.
